

The Mayor is the head of City Government

As the face of Edgewater the Mayor needs to understand who lives here. To do that, sometimes you simply need to sit down and listen.

As Mayor I will remain committed to supporting a productive and approachable government.

I'm Available to:

- Help you understand City Hall and how it can work for you
- Make time to sit down and hear your thoughts
- Help you utilize City services
- Hopefully, get you involved with the community through our many boards and commissions

Nelson and I in addition to raising our four, now grown, children gave foster care to hundreds of other children. As a CASA* Peer Coordinator I continue to be dedicated to supporting children and families. Today I am focused on using my time and experience to support our community.

*Court Appointed Special Advocate

Please contact me any time. Together we will keep Edgewater a great place to call home.

Re-Elect
Bonnie
McNulty
Mayor of Edgewater

Together
We are Edgewater

Bonnie McNulty

During Bonnie's first term as Mayor the City welcomed Edgewater's first City Manager.

Let's Chat

This was the beginning of a new standard of professionalism in Edgewater's administration. During her next three terms she cultivated a local governmental environment that resulted in outstanding City Staff, improved infrastructure, and unprecedented opportunity for future development.

Boards and Commissions

Volunteers are the heart of our community. The Mayor is responsible for appointing members to:

- Planning & Zoning Commission
- Board of Adjustments & Appeals
- Parks & Recreation Commission
- Edgewater Redevelopment Authority

Local, County and State

Beyond Edgewater's boundaries Bonnie is active with many local, county and state organizations to assure that Edgewater is well represented on a regional level.

Vote to Re Elect

Bonnie
